They were granted by the Government to encourage the building of this Railroad, which runs from the extreme north to the extreme south of the State of Illinois. It passes from/mal to end, through the richest and most lettile Prairies of the State, detred here and there with magnifecen to ak Groves. The recent opening of nearly 600 miles of this road throws open the lands for cultivation. They are scattered from one to fifteen miles of each side of it, through its entire length.
The soil is a dark, rich mold, from one to five feet in depth, is goatly rolling, and peculiarly ditted for grazing cattio and abegund the cultivation of wheat, indian corn, &c.
The first crop of Indian corn planted on the newly broken prairie, usually pays the cost of plowing and sometimes feaching.
Wheat sown on me we turned soil a sure to yield very large profits.
One man with a plow and two yoks of ozen, will break one and solalif to two acres per day. Contractscane he made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at $2 to $2.50 per acre. By judicious management farms may be broken and fenced the arts, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.
The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois, over highprice diands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation for the Eastern market. The rayed increase and growth of fourishing towns and villages along the itae of this road afford a growing home demand for farm produce.

Ceal and wood are delivered along the road at different points, at from $1.50 to $4 the cord or tim.
